

IDI Integrates Criminal Histories into idiCORE

July 19, 2016

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 19, 2016-- IDI, Inc. (NYSE MKT:IDI), a data and analytics company, today announced a major enhancement to its investigative solution for the risk management industry, idiCORE™, adding criminal histories into its next-generation platform.

Derek Dubner, CEO of IDI, commented, "We have repeatedly stated that this product will continually evolve, and this is just one more step in that process. Expanding our data assets is an essential part of our product roadmap. Coupled with our proprietary analytics and linking technology, greater data translates to greater insight, resulting in a more powerful solution for our customers. The addition of criminal records is an important step in widening the addressable markets served by idiCORE."

The company additionally announced that another major system enhancement, including the integration of motor vehicle records, is expected within the next several weeks.

About IDI, Inc.

At IDI, we believe that time is your most valuable asset. Through powerful analytics, we transform data into intelligence, in a fast and efficient manner, so that our clients can spend their time on what matters most – running their organizations with confidence. Through leading-edge, proprietary technology and a massive data repository, our data and analytical solutions harness the power of data fusion, uncovering the relevance of disparate data points and converting them into comprehensive and insightful views of people, businesses, assets and their interrelationships. We empower clients across markets and industries to better execute all aspects of their business, from managing risk, conducting investigations, identifying fraud and abuse, and collecting debts, to identifying and acquiring new customers. At IDI, we are dedicated to making the world a safer place, to reducing the cost of doing business, and to enhancing the consumer experience.
